

Eco L3 - Globalization, Inequality, and Redistribution

Introduction

Gabriel Zucman

gabriel.zucman@psemail.eu

Roadmap

1. What is this course about?
2. Course organization: grading, readings, etc.
3. Overview of the four main parts of the course

1 What is this course about?

- Rise of inequality and globalization have been two defining features of the world economy
- Goal of this course is to better understand the interplay between these 2 trends
- In so doing, provide introduction to core economic issues, through a distributional and global perspective

1.1 Revisiting core issues

- Long-term trends in inequality and their determinants
- Effects of taxes
- Variety of modes of regulation of globalization

1.2 Inequality is at the center of research, policy, and the public debate

- Rising inequality in many countries
- “Inequality is the defining challenge of our time”

Inequality is an important subject for:

- Economists in universities, academia, think tanks, banks...
- Policy-makers in governments & international organizations
- Everyone

2 Organization of the course

2.1 Lectures

- Lecture slides: <http://gabriel-zucman.eu/ecol3>
- Slides cover main points: take notes & consult references if needed

2.2 Grading

- A “referee report” of 3 pages on one of the articles marked with a star in the reference list
- See syllabus

3 Structure of the lecture: 3 parts

1. Core concepts and facts
2. Globalization and inequality
3. Regulating globalization, regulating inequality